Frank Schwarz Gastro Group - Professional Business Catering -

The profit of a successful performance at a trade show depends on the reception and care for the stand visitors. The Frank Schwarz Gastro Group understands itself as a culinary joint of the exhibiting company and their visitors. Our team offers an experience of more than 20 years in nationwide and international trade show catering. Previously we intensively consult you and arrange an individual as well as an innovative catering concept with you. Our staff supports you for planning and execution. So you can spend more time for your business. You care for your customers while we are responsible for the gastronomic needs of the trade show visitors. We provide the complete equipment as well as the waiting staff.

*But our service offers more:
We can show the fresh preparation to everybody with our show-kitchen on your stand. We also culinary accompany your press conference or the reception of your VIP visitors. The competence of your products connected with culinary art at highest level and extraordinary concepts create a carefully attention for your trade show performance – for your company and your business partners.*

Service at your trade show stand in a very new dimension.
